

In Progress
Expect late 2023

Working title: The Substructure of Language

This will be Appendix B to the note: Deconstructing the Physical World.

Appendix B will describe in more detail what is meant in that note by phrases such as, 'language learning operations', and will further explore the relationship between the contents of any person's $W[i]$ and those of their language using group's $W[z]$, where these terms are as defined within the conceptual framework proposed in the parent note.